

Period: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7

Name: _____

Term and Symbol	Definition
common market
supranational cooperation

☺ ECONOMIC COOPERATION ☹

What economic things make it easier for these countries to work together? P. 216 ☺	What economic issues make it tougher for these countries to work together? P. 217 ☹
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

☺ POLITICAL COOPERATION ☹

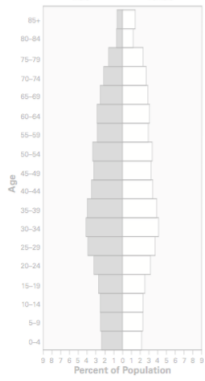

What political things make it easier for these governments to work together? P. 218 ☺	What political issues make it tougher for these governments to work together? P. 219 ☹
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

☺ CULTURAL COOPERATION ☹

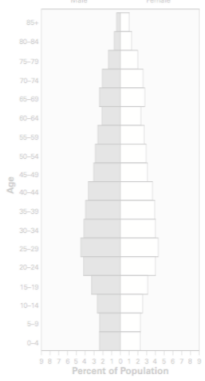

What cultural things make it easier for these countries to work together? P. 220 ☺	What cultural issues make it tougher for these countries to work together? P. 221 ☹
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Which of the three areas above do you think would be toughest for countries to cooperate on? Why?

Study the demographic transition model image.
PATTERN 1: A NEGATIVE POPULATION GROWTH

This is caused by...	This is a problem because...	Solutions

PATTERN 2: AN AGING POPULATION

This is caused by...	This is a problem because...	Solutions

PATTERN 3: RAPID GROWING POPULATION

This is caused by...	This is a problem because...	Solutions

SOLUTION BANK

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A. Allow parents to have paid time off when children are born. B. Allow workers from other countries to take available jobs. C. Encourage companies to pay for health care. D. Encourage parents to have children earlier in their lives. E. Give mothers paid time off and flexible schedules. F. Give people over 65 a “pension bonus” for each extra year they work. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> G. Move factories to other countries. H. Pay parents a “birth bonus” for each child they have. I. Pay relatives who stay home to help older family members. J. Provide free childcare to working parents. K. Require current workers to work more years before they retire. L. Require people to save for their own retirement.
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Why do more ‘developed’ or modern countries have smaller families?